

Spotlight on New York and Jersey Votes

By JACK BELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Democrats are rated an odds-on choice in one of two major political contests but in the other race Republicans sharply discount a Democratic claim of an upset in the making.

The outcome, in New York City where the Democrats are given the edge and in New Jersey where they contend they are forging uphill, likely will have a bearing on 1962 and 1964 national races.

The Democrats go into the final day of campaigning with some degree of encouragement from a weekend victory in Texas over the sort of GOP conservatism represented by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Henry B. Gonzalez, a liberal Democrat who won a special congressional race from Republican John Goode Jr., in San Antonio, Tex., Saturday flew to New York to help Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner's bid for re-election. Gonzalez planned appeals to Spanish-speaking voters.

There was not much indication that Wagner needed Gonzalez's efforts to win over Republican State Atty. Louis J. Lefkowitz and City Comptroller Lawrence E. Gerosa, a Democrat running as an independent.

Gonzalez had said he hoped to campaign also in New Jersey for Democrat Richard J. Hughes in his contest with Republican James P. Mitchell for the governorship. But New Jersey Democratic leaders didn't show much enthusiasm for this idea. Hughes has canceled his remaining campaign appearances in view of the death of his 85-year-old father Sunday.

President Kennedy, former President Harry S. Truman and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower all have had a hand in the New York City and New Jersey contests. Kennedy gave a long-distance endorsement to Gonzalez and Eisenhower campaigned personally in Texas for Goode.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson got into the act with what some regarded as a pitch to help position himself for a possible 1968 bid for the Democratic presidential nomination. He did some on-the-ground campaigning for Gonzalez.

Kennedy could claim something of a victory in the election of Gonzalez, a liberal Democrat of the stripe Johnson was not accustomed to associating himself with in Texas.

The President seemed likely to field a left-handed victory if Wagner wins re-election in New York City, as now expected. This would tend to simplify Kennedy's problems in dealing with the divided Democrats of the state.

In 1964 he would have to look to Wagner to reorganize the party and to supply him with New York's 45 electoral votes, without which Kennedy could not have won the Presidency in 1960.

Lefkowitz was given only an outside chance to nose out Wagner, but GOP Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller cheerfully put some of his 1962 and 1964 blue chips down on the line in the hope that the Republican candidate would make it close in a city that is 3-1 Democratic.

In New Jersey the journeys of the political Mohammeds to the mountains seemed to have had little outward effect on the outcome of a race for governor. Kennedy, Eisenhower and Truman all visited the state with receptions that varied in enthusiasm.

Supporters of Hughes were predicting that their candidate would win by a whisker. Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., said he is willing to bet that an upset is in.

Longer Bomb Test Threat by Russia

By REINHOLD G. ENSZ

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviets have issued a veiled warning that further nuclear testing by the United States and its allies may compel the Soviet Union to prolong its program of tests, still numerically behind the West.

President Kennedy's announcement last Thursday that the United States is getting ready for possible resumption of atmospheric tests was the target of a statement issued Sunday by the official Soviet news agency Tass.

"The statement by the United States president does not meet half way the desires of those who are sincerely pressing for an end to the nuclear arms race," Tass said.

"To the underground tests of nuclear weapons which are already being staged in the United States, nuclear tests in the atmosphere are to be added as soon as the U.S. government regards this as necessary."

"In the case of continuation of nuclear tests by the United States of America and its allies, all the more in the case of resumption of American nuclear tests to the atmosphere, the other side will watch these military preparations, primarily the steps in improving nuclear weapons, because it cannot permit the occurrence of such a situation in which the interests of its security would not be reliably ensured."

"This other side again will have to draw the appropriate conclusions for itself with regard to nuclear weapons tests. It gives without saying that full responsibility for the continuation of the nuclear arms race and for the cooling of nuclear tests will be borne then by the United States government."

The warning was coupled with another call for a general and complete disarmament treaty, Khrushchev, and a reiteration long proposed by Premier Khrushchev, and a reiteration that the Soviet Union is ready to ditch all its nuclear weapons if other nations do the same.

The statement said such a treaty should provide for "most strict international control." It did not elaborate. The Soviet Union in the past has rejected proposals to establish what the Western allies consider would be an adequate inspection system because of a disarmament treaty.

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Civilian employment at recently-reactivated Ft. Chaffee has reached 1,200, with 700 more civilians expected to be added by mid-December. Army officials report the first monthly payroll at the installation totaled $1.3 million with civilians receiving $300,000.

68 Missing as Tanker Explodes

LONDON (AP) — The 7,129-ton British tanker Clan Keith blew up off Tunisia Sunday night and first reports indicated many of her 68 crewmen were missing, the Admiralty announced. One brief message picked up by radio said five survivors were rescued from a lifeboat.

8 Killed in Road Crashes in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten persons died violently in Arkansas in the week ended Sunday midnight, eight of them in traffic accidents.

One person was killed in a tractor accident and one was shot to death.

Only two traffic fatalities were recorded over the weekend. A Negro man was killed near Washington Sunday night and a Negro man was killed near Bluff Saturday.

Arthur Barnett, 69, was killed when he was crushed between a parked car and a truck on state Highway 4 about one mile south of Washington.

The warning was coupled with another call for a general and complete disarmament treaty, Khrushchev, and a reiteration long proposed by Premier Khrushchev, and a reiteration that the Soviet Union is ready to ditch all its nuclear weapons if other nations do the same.

Co-op Wins Payment for Forrest City

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court held today the Woodruff Electric Co-operative Corp., is entitled to compensation for territory it lost to Arkansas Power & Light Co., at Forrest City.

The ruling means the Public Service Commission must reopen the case, determine just compensation and order AP&L to make it.

The co-op lost the territory when Forrest City expanded its city limits in 1957 to take in the plant. AP&L was authorized to take the territory within the city limits.

The territory included nine co-op customers.

The PSC ruling held that a 1955 act precluded Woodruff from getting any relief. But today's 5-2 Supreme Court decision, written by Justice Paul Ward, said such an interpretation of the act would permit a co-op to lose unlimited amounts of territory which it might have spent years in developing.

In another opinion, the Supreme Court upheld a $89 fine imposed on Belton Cecil of Polk County for starting a fire which burned 500 acres of a neighbor's land.

The high court denied a rehearing in the case of Mrs. Bonnie Connelly of Hot Springs, who received a three-year sentence for involuntary manslaughter in the shooting death of her husband, Joseph.

The court affirmed the conviction recently. Mrs. Connelly's attorney asked for a rehearing on grounds that the jury decided the length of her sentence by lot. The court rejected this contention.

It agreed, however, that the sentence was determined by each juror pulling down the sentence he thought she should receive and then dividing the total of years by 12. The court said this was a legal "quotient verdict."

Censorship Knocked Out by U. S. Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to review a lower court decision that a movie censorship law in Pennsylvania is unconstitutional.

The refusal means that the decision, made by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, is permitted to stand.

The censorship law called for approval of films by a three-member board appointed by the governor. Anyone showing a disapproved film could be fined and jailed.

The state court held that the law "plainly violates" federal and state constitutions. The state government appealed on the ground the decision gave a clear road to "smut mongers."

As is usual, the U.S. Supreme Court gave no reason for its refusal to grant the state a review.

Other actions by the high tribunal today were mostly of regional or limited interest. Among other things, the court:

Denied a review to Walter J. Hammill, a circus roustabout sentenced to death for the killing of an 11-year-old boy in Denver, Colo., Aug. 27, 1958.

Refused for the second time to review the trial of Ronald Lee Wolfe, under death sentence for the rape of an eight-year-old girl in Troy, Mo. The refusal was without prejudice to a habeas corpus petition now pending in U.S. District Court in Missouri.

Set Jan. 8 for hearing arguments on a dispute among southwestern states over use of the waters of the Colorado River.

Democrat Says Ike Helped Him

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Henry B. Gonzalez, a liberal Democrat and Texas' newest congressman, says he owes his election in the 20th District in part to ex-President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Eisenhower stamped San Antonio last week for Gonzalez, principal opponent in Saturday's special election, conservative Republican John Goode Jr.

Gonzalez defeated Goode by 52,555 to 42,555 with three other Democrats polling a total of about 1,500 votes. He will succeed Rep. Paul Kilday, Democrat, who resigned to become a federal judge.

Gonzalez left for New York where he'll join the campaign of Mayor Robert F. Wagner for re-election.

Up to the time of Eisenhower's appearance the National Democratic Headquarters hadn't realized the Republicans were trying to make this election a national issue, Gonzalez said in Dallas.

"After the Republicans brought in their 50-megaton bomb, people started getting agitated,"

Nehru Opens Talks With President

By KARL BAUMAN

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy and Prime Minister Nehru of India met today to begin discussions of problems the world over, with heavy emphasis expected to be put on nuclear tests.

Nehru has called the latest series of Soviet nuclear tests "an evil thing."

Kennedy last week set in motion preparations for U.S. tests in the atmosphere. He said this country will conduct explosions in the air if an evaluation of the Soviet Union's shots indicates that U.S. tests are necessary for the security of this country and the free world.

Kennedy arranged to greet Nehru upon his morning arrival at Quonset Point Naval Air Station from New York. Nehru flew into New York Sunday after a stopover in London where he talked with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Nehru is expected to press Kennedy for a moratorium on nuclear testing. In New York Sunday night he reiterated his position that the important thing is to stop all tests now without waiting for a treaty "with inspection and controls and all that."

The American and Indian positions also are diametrically opposed on the question of admission of Red China to the United Nations.

The Indian position, as expounded by Nehru, is that disarmament is one of the major world problems and "you can't deal with it without China."

Mrs. Kennedy arranged a private luncheon with Nehru's daughter and official hostess, Mrs. Indira Gandhi while Kennedy and Nehru held their opening talks.

Mrs. Kennedy is leaving around Nov. 20 for a two-week visit to India and Pakistan.

Viet Nam Is Losing Out to Rebels

By JOHN GRIFFIN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's pro-Western government is slowly losing its war against Communist rebels. The next few weeks may decide whether this trend speeds up or reverses.

Even if U.S. troops are not sent, there are expected to be large new outlays of American aid, which has already totaled more than $2 billion.

Officials here don't always want to be quoted on such dark views, but that is the general picture.

There are three major forces involved: The guerrilla enemy directed and reinforced from Communist North Viet Nam, the United States, and the 7-year-old government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

The Communists, called the Viet Cong, have stepped up the war to a dangerous degree in recent weeks.

Despite a variety of hints in the press and by officials here that Viet Nam would welcome U.S. combat troops, the feeling is still that President Kennedy's fact-finding mission led by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor considers this is not the time.

Diem's government has taken a series of steps to meet the growing Communist threat.

They include proclamation of a state of emergency, new revenue-raising taxes, military training for women and a variety of austerity moves such as three monthless days a week, cuts in high officials' pay scale, working government offices on Saturday afternoon, and formation of military units for civil service workers.

Many of these moves are only psychological and much could still be done in the way of austerity in the cities.

The army is considered generally loyal, but many troops have been literally fighting every day for years. They are tired, and their officers have at times been frustrated by the political details that center around Diem's palace.

The peasants in the countryside, where the war will be won or lost are still another matter.

It is generally agreed that much more could have been done, both in material and psychological ways, to win their allegiance. Besides the tactics of fear and violence, the Viet Cong has been able to capitalize on abuses by civil officials and the military.

Rusk Home From Meet in Japan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has returned from what he termed successful conferences with leaders in Japan and South Korea.

Rusk, Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges arrived Sunday night after a week in the Far East.

Rusk said three days of economic meetings with Japanese leaders at Hakone were very useful and very successful.

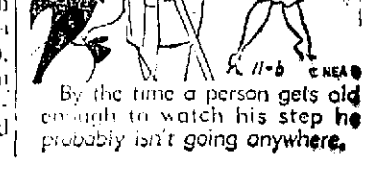

Rusk held a news conference during a stopover at Anchorage, Alaska. He said Berlin "is not lost and not going to be lost."

The situation in Laos will require further planning, he said.

Chapter XXXI

Don Julio cleared his throat and got to his feet. He paced the floor for a moment or so, hands clasped behind his back, and a faint frown tightening the lines in his strong handsome face. Finally he sat on the edge of his desk, and stared down at Beecher. "So that is your story," he said. "You have forgot nothing, omitted nothing?"

"That's it," Beecher said.

"In that case, there are some things which puzzle me." He hesitated, apparently searching for a word. "Well, let us say, if I am to accept this marvelous story, I must ask for a bit more clarification. Supposing we go over your account point by point, and see if we can't clear up certain things which I now find unlikely or illogical." Don Julio hesitated again, then smiled at Beecher, politely but cynically. "Earlier," he phoned to Madrid, and reported that a survivor from the missing Iberia plane would be in my custody tonight. And so, officials from our Intelligence staff and from the Guardia Civil are on their way to Mirimar now." Don Julio glanced significantly at the old-fashioned clock on the wall. "In an hour or so, I will give them my opinion of your statement, and then, for practical purposes, the investigation will be out of my hands. So you understand that it will be best all around if there are no puzzles or contradictions in your story."

"Yes, of course," Beecher said, put a cigarette in his mouth. "But what is it that puzzles you?"

"Let us begin, trivially but logically, at the beginning. The late Don Willie offered you a job in Rabat. You two were not friends. I remember your telling me of several disagreeable arguments with him in the past. Now considering this, didn't it occur to you that his offer was a bit strange?"

Mother Gets Back Her Lost Child

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Don't say a word, the judge cautioned. So, though she had waited 16 months for this moment, Mrs. Harley Sax, 23, walked into the FBI office without a word.

The 4-year-old blonde she found there looked at Mrs. Sax. In her blue eyes the watching judge saw a look of recognition.

The young Albuquerque, N.M., mother broke into tears. The child ran into her arms.

There was no question, said Judge Seward L. Hart after the reunion Sunday, that the girl was Brenda Marlene Jennings, daughter of Mrs. Sax by a previous marriage. She had disappeared from her grandparents' home in Guthrie, Okla., June 27, 1960.

The mother had sought the child in 14 states, but it was the FBI and Judge Hart, of the Omaha Juvenile Court, who finally brought them together.

Judge Hart and Thomas Gearty, special agent in charge, of the Omaha FBI office, said they had pieced together this story:

The night Brenda disappeared she had been permitted to accompany Billy Don Nelson, 29, of Guthrie, a family friend, on an errand. Nelson and the child vanished.

In August, 1960, neighbors in Omaha reported a little girl crying at an upstairs window. The child officers found behind a double-paned door had dyed hair. She was healthy, but the room was filthy.

The man who posed as her father used the name of Jack Wilbanks. He had served a 10-day vagrancy sentence.

DOROTHY DIX
Mooching Nephew Strains Family Relations

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: The son of my favorite brother was stationed at an Army Base close by. We invited him to stay with us weekends.

Instead of accepting what we serve my 200-pound nephew demanded special dishes plus a quart of milk a day. My Sundays were spent cooking, washing and ironing for him. Never once did he make his own bed. His long distance calls sent our telephone bills soaring.

At the end of six weeks he left in a huff because I asked for a few days' respite to catch up on my sewing. Then, through the family grapevine, we heard that he was to be married. Three days before the wedding a nasty note came from my sister-in-law, with a belated announcement enclosed. No invitation! My eldest brother and his wife got the same treatment. The older brother and his wife sent a gift. I feel we'd be hypocrites if we did.

What do you say? —Bewildered. Dear Bewildered: There is nothing hypocritical in sending a wedding present to the son and daughter-in-law of your favorite brother. Certainly your love for him is sincere. It was the sister-in-law not he, who wrote the "nasty" note. It has been said that the greater the kindness, the less the kindness. Refute that by choosing a really worthwhile gift and enclosing a card from you as a family. Show that sister-in-law you are a lady, even if she isn't!

Dear Helen: In a pique I married the boy I didn't love. We lived together three weeks.

The day after the wedding I knew him for what he really was; cheat, crook and bully. The night after I left he tried to kill me with a chain. Now, he is in prison on another charge and the boy I really loved has asked me to marry him. He is 23 and I'm 18. My first experience makes me doubt all men. Should I believe him? I love my folks but we've never been able to talk things out. That's why I turn to you. How do I go about getting a divorce? —C.

Dear C.: Since you were underage when you married, your parents could have the marriage annulled. The very fact that your husband tried to kill you and is now in prison would be justification enough. As for marrying the other boy, think twice, even though you love him. If possible find work in another city. Give yourself time to get a perspective on the situation. You're still young.

Dear Helen: I plan to major in music at college. My boy friend wants me to teach him the basic principals of the piano. At first my parents said okay. Now, they're throwing a fit and I'm in a funk. There's nothing serious between this boy and me. He dates other girls and I other boys. Why, in heaven's name, is it wrong for me to give him piano lessons, especially when my parents are home while he is here? —G.

Dear G.: Maybe it's the sour notes. Piano practice can be nerve-wracking, particularly when the pupil is a beginner. Instead of exercises and scales start the boy friend off on a simple, but good piece of music; like the Brahms' Waltz in A Major or a learned of the missing girl in Oklahoma. Wilbanks is the name of Mrs. Sax's parents with whom Brenda had been staying.

The FBI said a comparison of pictures indicated the man who used the Wilbanks name in Omaha and Billy Don Nelson are the same individual. He is sought under a federal warrant charging unlawful flight, Gearty said.

Milk Strike in New York Deadlocked

NEW YORK (AP) — Lengthy pence talks in a Teamsters Union strike that has caused a 13-day milk drought in the city and on Long Island were recessed early today after management, negotiators claimed exhaustion.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner called a temporary halt at 3:30 a.m.

12½ hours after the start of joint sessions that he had said would continue until a settlement was reached.

The Teamsters had sought a $7 a week across-the-board pay increase. Management had offered a $9.10 package over two years. The walkout of 10,000 milk truck drivers and plant workers has shut off the normal daily flow of eight million quarts of milk to 10 million residents of the city and Nassau and Suffolk counties, both on Long Island.

Shipment of milk here for general consumption—from dealers in five-state area cleared by City Health Department officials—has brought a threat from the state Teamsters Union president to spread the strike to upstate New York.

Rocco Deperno, the Teamsters official, said he would close any processing plants in New York State that bottled milk for shipment to New York City.

Rice Next Conference Foe of Hogs

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks, who pulled one out of the fire with Texas A&M Saturday, start preparation today to jump into the frying pan with Rice next Saturday in Houston.

For the second week in a row, the Hogs, still nourishing hopes of a third straight Southwest Conference title, face a game in which the loser will be eliminated from championship consideration.

It was that way Saturday when Arkansas and the Aggies took 2-1 league records into a homecoming game at Fayetteville, Arkansas won 15-8 on a 90-yard march that paid off with a touchdown in the last minute.

It will be that way Saturday when the Hogs match a 3-1 slate against Rice's 2-1. The winner can't start selling Cotton Bowl tickets, however, since Texas is breezing along with a 4-0 record after a 27-0 triumph over Southern Methodist Saturday.

The Arkansas - A&M game, as expected, turned into a slashing battle of defensive lines. The Hogs had all the better of it, but a big break and a gamble for a two-point conversion had A&M in the driver's seat 8-7 until the Hogs unleashed that final march.

The Aggies scored in the third period after Russell Hill recovered a George McKinney fumble on the Arkansas eleven. Fullback Roy Lee Caffey crashed over from the one on the fourth play. Quarterback John Erickson passed to Bobby Huntington for the two go-ahead points.

It looked as if Arkansas was out of it when the Aggies intercepted a pass at the Arkansas 38 in the fourth quarter and moved goallard with time running out. Even when the Hogs held at the 10 with just under five minutes remaining the cause looked hopeless.

Bust McKinney, mixing his plays masterfully, directed a 12-play drive and passed seven yards to end Jim John for a touchdown with 57 seconds left.

To add insult to injury, McKinney passed to Dudley for two extra points, the first time the Porkers have tried the bonus play this year.

Mickey ZAutomatic Toe) Cissell converted after the Porker's first touchdown, scored on a 49-yard march in the opening period. Dudley got the six points the hard way, running 17 yards after a 12-yard touchdown had been nullified by a penalty.

Arkansas drove deep into Aggie territory late in the second quarter but Aggie halfback Travis Reagan intercepted a pass at the goal line and returned it 51 yards to get A&M out of danger less than a minute before intermission.

The Hogs outgained the Aggies 234-91 on the ground and 111-47 in the air. McKinney and Billy Moore hit on 8 of 18 passes, but three interceptions, all by Reagan, kept them from getting breathing room.

Dudley with 62 yards and halfback Lance Alworth with 53 were the Porkers' leading ball carriers. Dudley also caught a 36-yard pass that got the winning drive underway.

Coach Frank Broyles called it the best game the Hogs have played all year. They'll need to be even better against Rice, which warmed up with a 42-7 triumph over Texas Tech, a team which had beaten Baylor 19-7 and Texas as Christian 10-7.

The Owls will carry a revenge motive into the game. A 3-0 loss to Arkansas knocked them out of the championship last year.

Celtics Push for Another Cage Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"We'll win. Even if we're bad, we'll win."

That was the candid, pre-season comment of Bob Cousy, captain of the Boston Celtics, when asked about the prospects of a fourth straight National Basketball Association championship.

So far, he appears to be a prophet, as well as backcourt magician. Boston has yet to lose, though coach Red Auerbach does have a gripe.

"The schedule is hurting us," Auerbach said recently. "We're not playing enough. You have to play to stay sharp. You just can't do it in our intra-squad games."

With the season into the fourth week, the Celtics have played only four times, as compared with nine for Los Angeles.

But it wasn't apparent in Boston's 127-107 romp over Syracuse Saturday in a nationally televised game. And if Cousy, now 33, is beginning to feel his age, that isn't apparent either.

Cousy flipped in 23 points, and sparked and directed the Celtics' 38-point third quarter that wrapped it up.

In other games, Jerry West hit 42 points and Elgin Baylor 38 in leading Los Angeles to a 125-112 conquest of Chicago; Freddie Lacombe led a rally in the closing minutes as St. Louis came from behind and beat New York 112-111 and Eddie Conlin's last second basket and free throw brought Philadelphia a 135-132 decision over Detroit. Wilt Chamberlain poured in 58 points for the Warriors.

the Black Hawks in the only game.

Nesterenko scored the goal that put the Black Hawks in front to stay against Boston. He also assisted on Reg Fleming's marker in the third period.

Satan Wins Garden State and $301,305

By TED MEIER

Associated Press, Sports Writer

Crimson Satan won the world's richest horse race—the $301,365 Garden State—last Saturday, but he didn't clinch the honor of being named the champion 2-year-old colt of 1961.

The chestnut son of Spy Song—ESTHARLao ES TH AR—The chestnut son of Spy Song—Papila might convince doubtful voters in the year-end polls by winning the Pimlico Futurity on Nov. 18, but all his Garden State triumph did was pad his bankroll and scramble the juvenile picture.

The post-time 6-to-5 favorite, Crimson Satan was given a masterful ride by Willie Shoemaker in beating the morning line choice, Donut King, by 2 1/2 lengths in 1:44 1/5 for the 1 1/16 mile golden gallop. Obeys was third, in Force fourth and Green Ticket, the early leader, fifth.

Peter Salem Sr., Detroit, owner of Crimson Satan, picked up a small fortune of $180,819, but the money angle is only one of the factors involved in the year-end voting by racing secretaries and sports writers.

The racing spotlight shifts this week to Maryland where the $100,000 Washington D.C. International is on tap at Laurel Saturday.

Texas Looms for Football No. 1 Spot

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas has won the statistical debate—at least for the present—from Alabama as to who should get the No. 1 spot this week among the nation's college football teams.

The Longhorns, the movingest team in college football with 1.7 miles in yardage in seven winning games so far, have the over-all edge on the Crimson Tide, which has also won seven games and can't enhance its reputation much this week against Richmond of the Southern Conference.

The Longhorns should replace fallen Michigan State as the No. 1 team in the next Associated Press poll after the Spartans and second-ranked Mississippi got bitten by the jinx bug last Saturday. The Spartans (5-1) lost their fourth straight game to Minnesota in Minneapolis, 13-0, while Mississippi (6-1) failed to get by Louisiana State in their big one for the third consecutive year, and had its winning string broken at 21 games, 10-7.

Texas, ranked first in over-all offense and with a defense that is as stingy as its offense, is mobile, racked up Southern Methodist 27-0 after being ranked third last week. This week the Longhorns, first in the Southwest Conference with a 4-0 mark, go against foe Baylor, gradually lancing Coast with 3-1 records, are working its powerful offense back into condition after being riddled by early season injuries.

Alabama, No. 4, which will play Georgia Tech and Auburn after Richmond and lay its claim to national honors on those games, skipped through Mississippi State 24-0 and took over as solid South-eastern Conference leader with a 5-0 mark. LSU is 4-0.

Texas and Alabama, in addition to Ohio State, which knocked Iowa 29-13 in a Big Ten battle, topped the Big Eight after team, made it 6-0 with a 37-6 victory over Missouri 7-6, and Georgia Tech over Lafayette.

Horace Mann Stuns Yerger 41 to 0

Yerger's Tigers had a bad time Saturday night at Hammons Stadium when a big band of Horace Mann Bearcats from Little Rock stomped 'em 41-0.

The local were unable to move at any time, except for a 20-yard gain set up by John Shaw on a 15 yard pass to Phillips.

The game was marked by many penalties. But the visitors' great weight, averaging 180 pounds, was the decisive factor. Yerger's was damaged by a long list of injured from previous games.

Browns Stop Pilfering of Kicked Ball

CLEVELAND AP—The Cleveland Browns may have lost the football game but they won 4-0 in the battle with the bleacher fans over who gets the ball after a kicked extra point or field goal is kicked.

The Browns roped off a section of 150 seats behind the goal posts for Sunday's game with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Thirty-three off-duty policemen were posted to make sure no fans got into the section.

This was not out of stringiness. The Browns' management took the action to the 100,000 fans who visited the stadium in the first quarter of 1960.
